

CHOOSE WITH CARE

Your ten-point removal company checklist

In uncertain times, we all need to be on our guard against sharp practice, unscrupulous operators and non-accredited companies. As an independent, family-run removals firm since 1973, we are pleased to report that most of our competitors are legitimate, accredited companies.

However, in increasingly hostile market conditions, some operators are cutting corners to reduce costs. Ultimately, such practices put the customer's interests at risk.

To help protect you against these dangers, we have drawn up a ten-point checklist. Please use it when appointing your removals company - and please choose with care.
